

Cecil Chandler
Reporter/On-Air Personality
WBTW-TV, Florence/Myrtle Beach

- ❖ Began broadcasting career at radio station WDAR in Darlington, SC, followed by WCOS and WLOS
- ❖ Joined WBTW-TV as “cub reporter” in 1972
- ❖ Served as Assistant News Director and News Director at WBTW, covering major stories such as Hurricane Hugo and the Pee Wee Gaskins murders
- ❖ Recipient of the South Carolina Order of the Palmetto – the state’s highest award
- ❖ Recipient of the South Carolina Lifetime Achievement Award for leadership in the broadcast industry
- ❖ 18-year tenure with SC Army National Guard
- ❖ 12-year service on City Council of Darlington
- ❖ Current host of a daily Internet radio program on www.grandstrandradio.com
- ❖ Host of the popular “Cecil’s World” and “Cooking With Cecil”
- ❖ Active in a host of community service projects – a regular fixture for many years at the Sun Fun Parade
- ❖ Known by his colleagues and friends for his professionalism, fairness and compassion.