

Dan Moon
On-Air Host, WTMA-AM
Charleston

- ◆ Hooked on radio from the age of 13, Dan set up his own station in his bedroom. WDMS, “Dan Moon’s Station,” expanded its reach when Dan strung wire through trees around his house and persuaded a local ham radio operator to help him boost his power. But when Moon decided to intercept WIS radio’s broadcast of a stock car race from Darlington, the FCC “cracked down” and silenced WDMS.
- ◆ Devoted family man and outspoken American patriot
- ◆ Voice of the Summerville Speedway
- ◆ Achieved great success as a country music DJ at WTAT in Charleston, and also served as Operations Manager.
- ◆ In the dark days following Hurricane Hugo, Dan was the voice of comfort to thousands of Charleston area residents. This planted the seed for his incredibly popular talk show.
- ◆ Named repeatedly by the Charleston Post and Courier as the area’s most popular radio personality.
- ◆ A dedicated community servant recognized by charitable organizations throughout the Lowcountry for his support.