

Dave Aiken
Station Manager, WOLO-TV
Columbia

- ◆ Began his broadcast career as a part-time radio announcer at WPCC in Clinton
- ◆ Joined WOLO-TV in 1969, and brought his skills to a variety of on-air and management roles through the years, including weathercaster, morning show host, production manager, program director, operations manager and general manager.
- ◆ Shakin' Dave is devoted to the Oldies, and has been “spinning the platters” each weekend for almost 25 years.
- ◆ Dedicated volunteer with SCBA for over 20 years, serving in many board and committee positions
- ◆ Known throughout the state for his commitment to community service, Dave has shared his energy and enthusiasm with countless civic and charitable groups through the years, including American Red Cross, United Way, Alzheimer’s Association, and Big Brothers/Big Sisters.
- ◆ Dave was presented the Midlands Meritorious Volunteer Award from the United Way in 1999.
- ◆ His service to the American Red Cross was recognized with the Clara Barton Volunteer Award for Meritorious Leadership – one of the Red Cross’ highest honors.
- ◆ Dave has helped raise millions for those who courageously battle muscular dystrophy in his 35 years of service as host of the Jerry Lewis MDA Labor Day Telethon