

2012 Hall of Fame Inductee
George H. Buck, Jr.
GHB Broadcasting

Broadcast visionary and highly regarded man of character who embodies the spirit of entrepreneurship

- Owner/President, GHB Broadcasting (16 stations), 1990-Current
- Owner/President, WCOS-AM/FM, Columbia, SC, 1960 - 1990
- Owner, Country's Oldest Independent Traditional Jazz Record Labels
Jazzology, GHB, American Music, Audiophile, Circle, Southland, Black Swan, Solo Art, Progressive
Prominent label artists include: Benny Goodman, Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington, Harry James and Count Basie
- Host of Nationally Syndicated Jazzology Radio Broadcast, 1972-Current
- Pioneered Top 40 Radio, Columbia, SC
- Pioneered Music Formats, WWOD-AM, Lynchburg, VA
- Founder, Palm Court Jazz Café, New Orleans, LA
- Founder/President, Little Big Horn Jazz Club, Atlanta, GA
- Former Co-Owner, National Tape Corporation, Nashville, TN
- Charter Member, Columbia Jazz Club
- Member, New Orleans Jazz Club
- Graduate, Lynchburg College, 1951
- Recipient, Honorary Doctor of Humanities Degree, Emmanuel Baptist University, 2007

For additional information on George Buck, read the recollections of Tom Gentry, Mr. Buck's longtime friend and employee, at www.scba.net/mullinaxrecollections.htm#Buck