

Gloria S. Wilson
SCBA President, 1987-88

“My stint as president of SCBA was very uneventful. Everything got done with no mishaps or serious conflicts. It was smooth sailing due to the cooperation of a great group of members.”

- Graduated from Northwestern with one of its first broadcasting degrees
- Joiced WUSN-AM, Charleston in 1951 when the station was out in the middle of a swamp
- Worked with the company that owned WCSC-TV and Radio for 28 years, beginning in 1959. Began writing copy and eventually became the manager of WSCC-AM/WXTC-FM before being named corporate vice president of personnel and community relations
- Served as the local/state president of American Women in Radio & Television
- Sits on the Board of Directors of the Canterbury House which provides housing for low-income families
- After retiring, she began to play and teach bridge. She was the first woman president of the SC Bridge Association.