

Ken Harmon
SCBA President, 1982-83

“SCBA went on the road during my presidency. Rick Uray and I covered the state to hold a series of meetings to explain and seek support of our association’s agreement with Angelo Ditty, FCC (Atlanta) for SCBA to receive and process all complaints filed with the Atlanta office against a South Carolina broadcaster. It was a precedent-setting concept and the first in the country. We spent a great deal of time making our members aware of the benefits. Angelo was with us all the way. It was the highlight of my year. Also, the broadcasters of South Carolina are the finest people in the world! They care! And I have always been proud to be one of them.”

- Retired in 1997 from WBSC Radio in Bennettsville after serving as a news and sales executive for four years. Also served as that station’s vice president and general manager from 1962-1985.
- Now serves as project director of the Arts & Cultural Visions Project for the City of Bennettsville and manager of the Bennettsville Downtown Development Association
- Currently serves in leadership positions with the Marlboro Electric Trust and the Sap Risin’ Festival, the Evans Chapel Foundation, the Marlboro County Economic Development Board, the Humane Society and the Evans Correctional Institution
- Served as a member of the South Carolina State Board of Education for four years.
- Involved with a number of performing arts organizations including the Marlboro Players, the Hartsville Civic Chorale and the Marlboro Arts Council. He also performed in several productions.
- Served in the United States Army from 1955-1957 as a cryptographer in Frankfurt, Germany