

Wallace Martin
SCBA President, 1954-55

“My most interesting memory of my year as president is the Winter Convention at Clemson where everybody knew everybody.”

- Owner of WMSC Radio in Columbia until 1962
- Became vice president of development at the University of South Carolina in 1960 serving until retirement in 1977
- Chairman of Carolina VIP Tours from 1977-1994. With his wife, conducted 66 tours around the world.
- Community service champion who served as chairman of the Columbia Chamber of Commerce in 1959, chairman of the Governor’s Mansion Foundation from 1977 to 1981 and chairman of Trinity Episcopal Cathedral Foundation from 1976 to 1986